Charlotte Lives!: Because He Lives I Can Face Tomorrow Lucy Karen Clay

In this amazing and true love story, Lucy Karen Clay paints the picture of Loving, Loss, and Living as told by Rachel Rivers. Only the names have been changed. "Jacob" is the artist, (Jack Weil), who painted the front cover "Flower Garden of Life and Love" design for "Rachel." It is a cautionary tale filled with prayers of covering, courtship, and the privilege of nurturing and caring for a loved one. Specific Scriptures are included which anchored "Jacob and Rachel" as they walked alongside one another on this part of their journey. Clearly, God ordained this couple to bring His ultimate Glory. It is a lesson of LIFE and brings a serious awareness of how life is tragically ending for some. Startling information is included about the distinct differences between hospice palliative care /respice care / care giving and comfort care. Once the morphine begins, everything changes and there is no turning back. Knowledge is Power through Advocacy and Awareness. "For it is appointed to a man once to die, and then the judgment." Hebrews 9:27. Who determines when it is one's time to die? For more information please visit www.TheSimplicityProject.org.
