You're not yet an adult, but you're not really a kid anymore either. You may be twelve or thirteen and just beginning the teen years; fifteen or sixteen and about to get your driver's license; or seventeen or eighteen and about to graduate from high school. These are the years someone once called the "tween" years. In today's high-pressure, fast-paced world, it's not easy being a teenager. You're faced with difficult situations every day. Friends or peers may pressure you to do things you don't want to do. They may pressure you to do things you might want to do, but know you shouldn't. What you need is the strength, resolve and encouragement to pass up those temporarily enticing and exciting things in order to work towards God's destiny in your life. God does have a plan for your life. His plan is a good one. He has a plan for you to prosper. His plan will give you hope and a bright future. God's Little Devotional Book for Teens was designed to encourage and inspire you to discover, desire and implement God's divine plan for your life. The powerful quotes and Scriptures will give you something on which to meditate and the devotional stories will help you apply their principles.
