Everyone has a story to tell, but how do you tell that story if you are not a writer? As a photographer I wanted a way to be able to tell my story for future generations. The solution, create my story using photos and journaling. This book is full of questions and tips that I used to help create my story. This is not a book on how to scrapbook but how to create a visual story of your life. The book talks about why and how you should tell your story and suggestions for dealing with painful stories as well as ways to personalize and what you can do if you don't have photos. It is never to late or early to start and your story is important.
