Book 5 of the More Than Friends Gay Romance Series. Standalone Romance.

Patton is new to town and hasn't met a lot of people outside of the spa he works at as a massage therapist. Patton wants a relationship but he's quick to fall in love and even quicker to scare away most men he's interested in.

When he meets an outgoing bartender named Caleb, he is immediately attracted but isn't sure he can date someone that has to flirt for tips all night long. Unfortunately, that's not the worst thing Caleb does to make a living.

A heart-warming story about seeing past the surface to find what truly matters.
