Love Lies Within: First Loves & Second Chances, Lost Loves, Sacrifice and Heartache. Stephan J Myers

Love, passion, lust and sacrifice. Love has rarely been so eloquently captured.

The language of love is universal, but it manifests itself in many different guises. In heart aching beautiful prose the hauntingly evocative poetry of Stephan J Myers touches the hearts and minds of everyone who has loved and lost. A timelessly evocative weaving of images and words that are wholly unforgettable, he continues to build a cult following of devoted fans around the world.

Poet, author and artist, readers across the world are discovering the magical books of Stephan J Myers and here's what a few of them had to say.

The Fallen will break your heart, The Kiss will leave you breathless, The Writer will leave you wanting. Three epic poems which will change the way you think about love. These are Myers at his mesmerising best. - BookViral

Stephan J. Myers continues his wonderful distinctive style of writing and has made this fairy tale into yet another magical read. "The Colour Red" is a beautiful treat for children and grown-ups alike. A highly recommended story to be read and shared with others. – Children's Author & Illustrator Sannel Larson

Many things can be read into this memorable short tale. Lovingly illustrated, a work to put on your shelf and cherish. – Bestselling Author Marc Secchia

Sweetly rhythmic and smoothly rhyming, Stephan Myer's children's Christmas story, the Prayer, reads a little like The Night Before Christmas crossed with a touch of Dickens. Humanly sad, spiritually haunting, and beautifully faithful without being tied to any faith. It's a lovely Christmas tale for any time of year, and a wise lesson to guide a growing child. - Sheila Deeth VINE VOICE

Myers' fairy tale is a rhapsody of colours, musicality and clever. Each picture, with its vivid colours and soft lines, is a narrative statement of its own...so brilliant it should be framed! – Mina's Bookshelf
