Some people divide the world into those who are “cat people” and those who are “dog people”. From my point of view, anyone can be a cat person if he finds the right cat. It does not matter how many different pets you had before or if you spent your life breeding cats. Each cat will surprise you with a new personality, with intelligent features that you’d think only humans should have, and with all the love that a cat can offer. This book will explain to you everything you need to know about these amazing pets so you can give them the comfortable life that they deserve.

All my life I’ve dealt with cats. Either with abandoned kittens I found on the street, or the sick ones that relatives would call me to pick up, and so on. In the beginning, it seems impossible to understand these strange creatures; one moment they love you, and in the next they bite you. After many years of caring for dozens of saved cats and dozens of newborn kittens that I raised, I can say without a doubt that I am a cat person!
