Kaydence and Candace story Kaydence had to become the man of his house at just the age of 18 when his parents went to prison. Not only did he have to become the guardian of his ten year old twin siblings, but he also had to take the reign in his father's drug empire. But taking on all of that at a young age and succeeding where most didn't think he could, didn't prepare him for what's to come as an adult, father, and leader of The Family Empire. Kaydence is being pulled in two different directions from trying to find out what is wrong with his sick daughter to stopping whoever is after the Empire. Candace never knew what it was like to have her mother's love growing up only her hatred. Through that hatred Candace experienced some things an adult let alone a child or teenager shouldn't have to go through especially at the hands of their mother. Despite it all, she found love in a hopeless place when Kaydence entered her life at a time when she needed help the most. Kaydence and his family showered Candace with the love, loyalty, and security she only dreamed of. Their love is enough to erase the evil from her past until her past comes at her full force causing her to have to face what she has covered up in her mind. Will Candace crumble or flourish under the pressure of her past? Can Kaydence and Candace relationship survive the tension of the unknown from Skylas mysterious illness? Can Kaydence find out who is after his family before it's too late? Will he find out who was able to infiltrate The Family Empire before they take them apart from the inside out? Will Kaydence daughter Skylas survive whatever illness that has taken over her body?
