A Sweet, Clean Amish Romance Novella

Abigail was born with a disability that causes her to rely on a brace and a crutch to get around. She tries her best to be strong and learn the lessons she feels God is trying to teach her.

She meets a new young man in town, Jeremiah, who is captivated by her strength, and character. But her parents decide it is best if Jeremiah does not court their daughter at this time. Especially with her disability. Can Jeremiah win her parents favor?

Abigail wants to have surgery for her leg but her parents can't afford it. And just when her situation couldn't possibly get any worse, it does. She feels confused and scared, and has many questions for God. Why did God allow this to happen? Can she trust God in the midst of this unbearable situation?
