The Last Voyage of the Dan-D E. B. Alston

The Last Voyage of the Dan-D takes nine year old Alex out to sea on a magical journey on Captain Dan's creaky old boat, the Dan-D. Dialog between the two is lively, witty, whimsical, and comical to the point of hilarity. They experience unexpected situations where the two of them work to extricate themselves from all of the difficulties they encounter including getting lost and discovering a new island off the North Carolina coast. And when they finally return to Topsail Island, the mystery has only begun! It is a delightful, witty, hilarious story with a touch of mystery and will be enjoyed by both children and adults.
