Natural Childbirth in the home is a miraculous, wonderful event. It is Faith building to see and experience the Father breathe life into a human being. These are the stories of those events that birthed not only beautiful children but Faith to believe that God is and that we are fearfully and wonderfully made. God is our Creator and He wants to teach us how to walk in faith and love, with His creation. Sometimes people ask me why I would be so foolish to get up at all hours of the day and night to forge flood waters, snow, cold, and dark to put aside my plans and leisure time to go to a birth. What does it mean? I love to answer this. He is the reason. I will get to see God.
