The Kane Family saga continues with Andy's story.

A gypsy fortune teller convinces architect Andy Kane his dreams are of a past life, that of the man who was murdered and buried in his family's basement in 1918. He must resolve the issues of the past life or his life will end the same way, but how can he do that from this life?

After he rescues Julianne Tandry from an abusive man in a bar, Andy's mind isn't just on his dreams, but he can't move forward with a relationship until he figures out what issues need to be resolved. Julie, a real estate agent, helps Andy find a farm to buy, where things get really strange. But she loves Andy, and despite his past life visions, she's not willing to give him up.
