Don't You Worry, Don't You Cry Rebecca Hill

Don't You Worry, Don't You Cry prepares children for kindergarten by exploring concepts such as sharing, learning, and problem-solving, while also teaching them of God's eternal love. This charming book also provides parents with a "scrapbooking section" to include photos from their child's first day of school, as well as a diary to record their thoughts on that special day. It's a children's book for today, and a family keepsake for years to come!
