Sweet Forbidden Love: A Wholesome Clean Amish Romance Rebecca Nash

Katie comes from a very strict Amish background. Elijah is a walk on the wild side of Lancaster county! A Sweet Biblical Amish Romance that brings two worlds together.

This is a unique twist on the normal Amish romance. I really enjoyed the struggles that Katie faced in a modern world while trying to keep her faith and traditions. It's something we all face in our own way. Two thumbs up for this sweet romance!" Samantha Stevens

Torn between her upbringing and her heart!

Katie and her best friend dream of true love and being married someday. However Katie's family wants her to marry a man she has no feelings for. Torn between doing what's right for her family and church; Katie goes to a barn raising and meets someone that changes her life.

Elijah is unlike any other man she's known. Coming from a much more modern family he urges her to break out of her shell and it causes her turmoil inside.

Now her attraction to him would challenge everything she's known and tempt her to move away from her family.

But is she growing more toward her truth and God as she moves toward spirits call? This would prove to be a true leap of faith as Katie must make the biggest choice of her life.

Rebecca Nash delivers another heartwarming romance.
