Have you ever wished you could express yourself in writing in just a few powerful words? Like when you're giving flowers and want to write something clever on the enclosure card. Or when signing a group birthday card at work. Or when writing a sympathy note to a friend. There are occasions in life where we are asked to compose short messages of just one, two or three carefully-chosen sentences. This book shows you how to write messages like that.

Words to the Rescue: The sentiment guide for the tongue tied is divided into twelve chapters, so readers can quickly find the sentiments they need: Anniversary, Apology, Birthday, Congratulations, Encouragement, Friendship, Get Well, Goodbye, Romance and Fun, Sympathy, Thank You and Thinking of You. With over 1000 entries, each 30 words or less, readers are sure to find the inspiration they need to craft personal, memorable and witty notes.
