Prince Lian Evanson has fled the Kingdom of Dunshor, pursued by the mages, seers, and assassins in the employ of his uncle, the Usurper King Rishak Garvelson. A brutal and bloody coup ended the lives of the rest of Lian's family, but he managed to escape that fate by the slimmest of margins.

In the months since that terrible night, Lian has lived under an assumed name and identity and has taken a berth aboard the mercenary ship Searcher as her siege engineer along with his three steadfast allies: the goblin scout Snog, the intelligent spellbinding sword Gem, and the imprisoned necromancer known only as Lord Grey. The four companions must face the dangers of the seas and a mercenary's life while still attempting to avoid King Rishak's hired killers.

But the king and his Master sorceress queen, Jisa, have even darker plans for their fugitive nephew, and Lian is unaware that he sails toward dangers beyond imagining.
