Not illustrated. 1856 Excerpt: ...adequate to the occasion. The Assembly of New Jersey might certainly with equal propriety have done the same, had they been allowed to meet. "It likewise appears by the newspapers that the Governor of Maryland on the 12th instant, had u issued a proclamation for dissolving the General Assembly of that Province, and to order writs of election to be issued to call a new Assembly returnable the 25th day of July next." But there is not the least surmise that the Provincial Convention of that Province have taken any offence at such proclamation, or so much as pretended to think the Governor had thereby acted in direct contempt and violation of the resolve of the Continental Congress, and was therefore such an enemy to tte liberties of this country as that he ought to be tried and imprisoned. Yet the Maryland Convention have shown as much spirit and regard for the liberties of America as any body of men on the continent. But they, it seems, are for peace, reconciliation and union with Great Britain on constitutional terms, and have too much sense and virtue to declare a Governor an enemy to the liberties of this country merely because he is an enemy to the liberties which such designing men are disposed to take with the old constitutional government. The Governor commented also at considerable length upon what he was pleased to term the evils of " independent republican tyranny" which he considered impending over the province, as well as upon the injustice with which he had personally been treated. For whatever of an offensive character this communication my contain, due allowance can now be made.⁷⁰ To one of his impetuous disposition and high ideas of prerogative, it must have been exceedingly galling to be placed thus at the mercy of a self-...
