This workbook accompanies a six-session DVD parenting series called Loving Our Kids On Purpose. It covers: How to change our goal, as parents, from demanding obedience and conformity to training our children in self-control and protecting a loving connection to us. Phrases and key words that will help parents manage themselves and allow their children to work on their lives and problems. Processes that reduce fear and anxiety and help parents create a safe place for their children to build confidence and personal responsibility in their decisions. How to respond to our children's failures that encourage them to grow and learn. How to set kids up to learn to think and problem solve the issues and circumstances in their lives.
